

Mr. Steve Peters is a Senior Energy Specialist (waste to energy) within the Sustainable Development and Climate Change Department of the Asian Development Bank. Steve has a Bachelor of Civil and Environmental Engineering degree and a Masters of Engineering Science in Project Management from the University of Melbourne. Steve is a Corporate Member of the Institution of Engineers Australia. He has been a Board Member of the Australian Chamber of Commerce in Singapore, and an Executive Director of W2E, a biogas developer. Prior to working with ADB, Steve was previously the Group Managing Director of Stratcon Singapore Pte Ltd and Director of a number of related subsidiaries. He was the founding Chairman of the Asia Pacific Biogas Alliance – The Industry Association for Asia's Biogas Industry.