

Dr. A. K. Balyan

Dr. A K Balyan, the lead trainer, has over 40 years' rich experience in the Oil and Gas sector. He has done his M.Tech from the Indian Institute of Technology, Delhi, India and Ph.D from Technische Hochschule fur Chemie, Merseburg, Germany.

Dr A K Balyan was the Managing Director of Petronet LNG Limited and Director (HR & Business Development) at ONGC Ltd, leading companies in LNG & Oil & Gas in India. He had been actively involved in E&P activities in different basins of India, Implementation of downstream projects of ONGC, C2+ extraction from rich LNG – a unique project in the world, petrochemical complex using C2+ extract from LNG. He also led the establishment of 5 MMT capacity LNG storage and regasification terminal at Kochi, Kerala, India and expansion of Dahej LNG terminal from 5 MMT capacity to 17.5 MMT – biggest LNG Regas operating capacity terminal in the world.

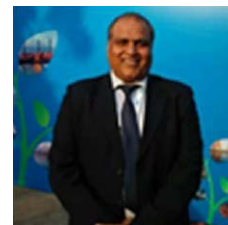

Dr. Balyan is also endowed with rich international experience and has been associated with assignments related to LNG terminals/ FSRU at Bangladesh and Malaysia. At present, he is the Chairman and Director, Carmine Energy Ptc, Singapore and advises on LNG Terminal developments.

Mr. Rajeev Mathur

Mr. Rajeev Mathur is an Engineer by profession, having a Master's Degree in Business Administration with specialization in Marketing Management and has over 35 years of experience in the Oil & Gas Sector. He has been the President, Policy & Growth of Cairn Energy India, one of the largest private sector companies in the Oil & Gas Sector in India. His earlier assignments were as Executive Director in GAIL (India) Ltd. and as Managing Director of Mahanagar Gas Limited. Mr. Mathur has been the Chairman of the Energy Committee of the PHD Chamber of Commerce & Industry (PHDCCI) and has been on the Hydrocarbon Committee of The Federation of Indian Chamber of Commerce & Industry as well as ASSOCHAM. He has also been as a Director on the Board of Indraprastha Gas Ltd., GAIL Gas Ltd, Bengal Gas Ltd. Avantika Gas Ltd. as well as China Gas Holdings Ltd, Hongkong. He has also been on the Governing Council of the Natural Gas Society.

Mr. Swami Dayal Prasad

Mr. Swami Dayal Prasad, has a rich experience of four decades in the energy sector, power generation and fuel sourcing. A graduate mechanical engineer from Agra University, he also possesses an Executive Post Graduate Diploma in Business Management from Management Development Institute, Gurgaon. He has a deep learning of the coal and gas sourcing.

For over 38 years, Mr Swami Dayal Prasad worked with NTPC Ltd, with a diversified portfolio of over 67 GW (along with Joint Ventures) and the second largest Independent Power Producer in the world. During his last 14 years, he worked at the Corporate Fuel Management, superannuating as its head. Majority of NTPC's portfolio is in coal and gas and his responsibilities included ensuring fuel security for the existing coal & gas fleet (about 6 GWs of Gas-based and over 40 GWs of Coal-based power stations of NTPC & its JVs / Subsidiaries) and about 25 GWs of expansion. During his tenure, he was responsible for Fuel Supply agreements for nearly 600 mcf/d of gas (Long-term and Short-term including Spot RLNG) as well as 160 MTPA of Coal (including Long-term, Short-term imports and from Spot auctions). For a brief period, he also oversaw the E&P activities for the Oil & Gas blocks against licenses secured in the domestic NELP rounds.

Mr. R. K. Garg

Mr. R K Garg, a Post Graduate in Commerce and a member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India and the Institute of Company Secretaries of India, possesses a rich experience of around four decades in the areas of Finance, Commercial, Legal, and Compliance. He has deep understanding of national / international gas and LNG market.

Mr. R K. Garg worked with Petronet LNG Limited (PLL), owning and operating largest LNG terminal in India. He worked with PLL over 16 years and became member of its Board of Directors. During his tenure at PLL, he has was Director of Finance and Commercial. He joined PLL in its initial formative years in 2001 as Vice President (Finance) & Company Secretary and has been a part of the key senior management team involved in all its strategic decisions for sourcing of LNG, sales agreements, construction and financing of LNG terminals.